

STREET ART AS A SYMBOL OF PEACE AND PROTEST

Banksy's Flower Thrower

a rhetorical analysis

PRESENTED BY: MOZA, SARA, FAHAD, YESSINE, AND AHMED

In one word, what message does this piece of art convey to you?

Scan the QR code!

Who Is Banksy?

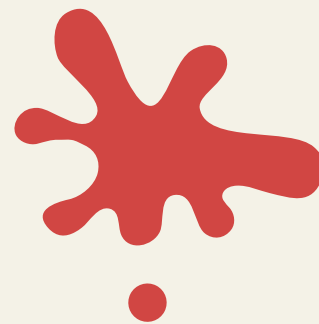

Identity

HE'S AN ANONYMOUS STREET
ARTIST

Art

HIS ART COMBINES HUMOR WITH POWERFUL SOCIAL AND POLITICAL MESSAGES

Themes

ANTI-WAR, ANTI-ESTABLISHMENT, AND SOCIAL JUSTICE.

How Does Banksy Use Rhetorical Appeals to Challenge Violence?

Ethos

How does Banksy's reputation contribute to the message's credibility?

Ethos

How Does the Medium of Street Art Impact the Credibility and Authenticity of Flower Thrower?

Logos.

Logos.

What argument does the artwork communicate? What point might Banksy be making about conflict, violence, or peace?

Pathos.

How does this contrast between aggression and peace make you feel?

Contrast of Aggression and Peacefulness

Anonymous Figure

Symbol of Resistance from Peace

Hope and Optimism

What do the flowers represent?

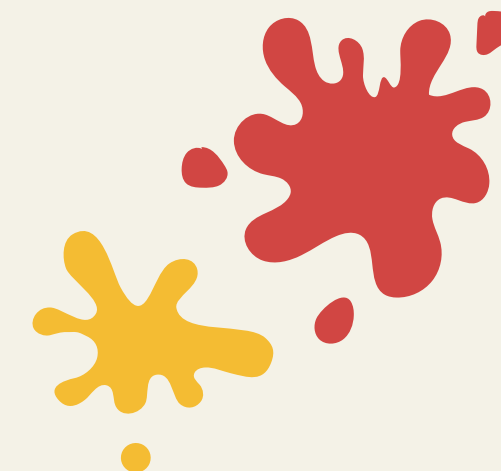

Context and Audience.

Who is Banksy's Flower Thrower for?

“In what cultural or historical contexts might this artwork hold significance? How would it be interpreted differently in various countries or communities?”

Visual Rhetoric.

Colors

CONTRAST BETWEEN BLACK AND WHITE AND THE COLORFUL
FLOWERS

Body Language

AGGRESSIVE POSE WITH COLORFUL FLOWERS

Flowers

A SYMBOL OF LOVE AND PEACE

What Is The Ultimate Message?

1.

Banksy's Message

2.

Peace Over Violence

3.

Art As Protest

Thank You.

PRESENTED BY: MOZA, SARA, FAHAD, YESSINE, AND AHMED